WALK INTO LIGHT

SPONSORSHIP FORM

What am I walking for?

The Sanctuary Trust Walk into Light will start in the darkness from Corbiere walking into the light and arriving at St Aubin Parish Hall at sunrise. The aim of the walk is to raise awareness of the work of the Trust which provides support and accommodation for men who have hit a crisis and have few places to turn.

Sanctuary Trust opened its doors in a former guest house in St Aubin in April 2011 to provide shelter and support for men facing homelessness due to a life crisis, whether mental, emotional, financial, relational or job loss, sometimes exacerbated by alcohol or drug misuse.

The aim of the Trust is to help men get their lives back together with re-built self-esteem and self-confidence and return to being useful members of Jersey society. Today Sanctuary has two sites, Sanctuary House in St Aubin and Sanctuary Lodge in St Peter that can accommodate up to 24 men for varying periods of time and has helped hundreds of men get their lives back on track.

When Sunday 28 April 2019

Where Corbiere, following the five-mile Railway Walk route finishing at St Aubin Parish Hall

What time 4.30am - 6.00am

Enjoy a complimentary hot drink and bacon roll at the finish provided by St.Aubin's Cafe.
Liberty Bus will transport walkers FOC back to Corbiere to collect vehicles if required.
