WHAT AM I SLEEPING FOR?

The aim of the Sleep Out is to raise awareness of the work of the Trust which provides sanctuary, support and hope for men who have hit a crisis and have few places to turn.

Sanctuary Trust opened its doors in a former guest house in St Aubin in April 2011 to provide shelter and support for men facing homelessness due to a life crisis, whether mental, emotional, financial, relational or job loss, sometimes exacerbated by alcohol or drug misuse.

The aim of the Trust is to help men get their lives back together with re-built self-esteem and self-confidence and return to being useful members of our society. Sanctuary has two sites, Sanctuary House in St Aubin and Sanctuary Lodge in St Peter that can accommodate up to 24 men for varying periods of time and has helped hundreds of men get their lives back on track.
